

For immediate release

Third annual observance of Religious Life Sunday, 3rd Sunday of Epiphany, January 26, 2025

Contact: Religiouslifesunday@gmail.com

The General Convention of The Episcopal Church approved resolution 2022-B004, “Foundation of Religious Life Sunday,” to be commemorated each year on the 3rd Sunday of Epiphany. The purpose of this observance is to share information about vowed religious orders and Christian communities, their residential and dispersed ways of life, and what resources and support they have to offer to all Episcopalians.

This year, the publicity for Religious Life Sunday focuses on the similarities and differences between religious orders and Christian communities.

1. Members of religious orders live in community with each other, give up all their possessions under a vow of poverty, and are celibate. Others may affiliate with a religious order as an associate or oblate.

Title III, Canon 14, section 1: “A religious order of this church is a society of Christians (in communion with the See of Canterbury) who voluntarily commit themselves for life, or a term of years, to holding their possessions in common or in trust; to a celibate life in community; and obedience to their Rule and Constitution.”

Learn more and for links to individual orders: <https://caroa.net>

2. Members of Christian communities live in their own homes, either alone or with their families, take a vow of poverty interpreted as simplicity and well-discerned use of resources but do not give away all their possessions, and take a vow of chastity, but chose whether to be celibate or live in committed relationship with a spouse or partner.

Title III, Canon 14, section 2: “A Christian community of this church is a society of Christians (in communion with the See of Canterbury) who voluntarily commit themselves for life, or a term of years, in obedience to their Rule and Constitution.”

Learn more and for links to individual communities: <https://naecc.net>

We believe that religious life has something for everyone in The Episcopal Church! Our religious orders and Christian communities offer spiritual companionship to deepen relationship with God and to center our lives in Christ.

The website for Religious Life Sunday, <https://religiouslifesunday.net> includes videos, a list of speakers, and other resources to help Episcopalians and others connect with religious communities and to join in the celebration of Religious Life Sunday.